Shelly Speir is a highly accomplished trial attorney with nearly 18 years of experience in our courts. As a partner in the Tacoma law firm of Troup, Christnacht, Ladenburg, McKasy, Durkin & Speir, she has fought hard for those who have been injured by the negligence of others. She has obtained significant results for those who have suffered brain injuries and other permanent damage from motor vehicle accidents and major dog bite attacks. Shelly also has expertise in real estate and land use law.

Shelly Speir has been named a "Super Lawyer--Rising Star" and "Super Lawyer" by Thomson Reuters and is listed as one of the "Top Attorneys in Washington" by Seattle Met Magazine. She is highly regarded by her colleagues.

A former teacher and professional ballerina, Shelly now makes her home in Lakewood. In her spare time, Shelly is an avid knitter, beekeeper, and jeweler.

Shelly believes that in order to create true "access to justice," judges need to work hard every day to apply the law and the rules equally to all. Shelly Speir's extensive courtroom experience and calm, respectful temperament will make her the kind of judge we deserve in Pierce County.
