6. New Business The Chair again announced the open officer positions for Vice-Chair and Treasurer. Elections will be held during the December meeting. The Chair urges all PCO's to be in attendance on December 6th.

Cliff Allo is appointed as Chair of the newly formed Resolutions Committee. Any members interested in participating on the Committee can contact Cliff.

Jerry Beckendorf moved adoption of a 'Resolution in Support of Public Financing of Campaigns ("Clean Elections")'. Betty Ogden seconded the motion. After a brief discussion, the motion passed-without-objection.

The Secretary will notify Craig Salins, Executive Director WPC, by mail, of the endorsement.

5. Guest Speaker: Darcy Burner, 8th Congressional District Candidate Darcy Burner, accompanied by staff members Lynn Allen and Jerry Abbott presented a lessons-learned review of her 2006 campaign and of the tactics being developed for her upcoming 2008 campaign. Darcy credited Jerry Beckendorf's 2006 tactics in the 25-172nd and her subsequent (and only) outright win as being the model on which she was basing her district wide 2008 campaign. Darcy also posed for pictures with Jerry holding the Male Volunteer of the Year trophy, which was awarded to Jerry at the Warren Magnusson Dinner.

Darcy defines her political philosophy with five simple points:

Government should treat everyone fairly,

Hard work should be rewarded,

Government should stay out of private lives,

Promises made should be kept, and

We should all strive to leave the world a better place than we entered it.

Overall, the presentation "TALES FROM A RED DISTRICT" was enthusiastically received by the membership. The Burner campaign can be reached via email at: campaign@darcyburner.com.

7. Chairs Report Lauren announced Ken Peach has volunteered to provide a batch of his famous 'Red-Green Chili' as the basis of a Potluck dinner for the December meeting. Look for details in the November "Focus".
